APPLICATION PROCESS

- If you are not already a registered student at Spring Hill College, you must complete the general application for admission to Graduate Theology Programs.
- Request official transcript(s) of your previous college or university work, including all theological courses, and have them sent electronically to: grad@shc.edu
- Spiritual Autobiography: In about 5 or 6 (maximum 10) pages give an overview of the highlights or turning points of your journey of faith, including personal, family and professional background; significant experiences of awakening, conversion or growth; whatever experience you may already have in receiving and/or giving spiritual direction; and the reasons for your interest in this program. You may send this in a separate email directly to theology@shc.edu as an attachment.
- After completion of this form click submit button on page 2
- Personal Interview with program director and/or liaison will be scheduled after submission of the previous items.

PREREQUISITES: please indicate which of these you have already completed; they may also be fulfilled as co-requisites, during the course of the CIS program.

One individually directed silent Ignatian retreat (of at least 5 days) OR the “19th Annotation” retreat in daily life (6-8 months): preferably before beginning the program

Ongoing spiritual direction (usually once every 4-6 weeks; if you have not yet had regular spiritual direction, you may begin during the course of the program)

List all silent retreats made for a duration of 5 days or more: include dates, year, place and type of retreat:
