

Instructor or Assistant Professor of Sport Management

Spring Hill College, a Jesuit, Catholic, liberal arts college, invites applications for a full-time faculty position in Sport Management at the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor to begin in August 2023. Salary and rank will be commensurate with experience. An earned Master's degree in sport management or related field from an AACSB accredited institution required, doctorate degree in sport management or related field is preferred. The ideal candidate will be able to teach a variety of undergraduate sport management courses. Additional proficiency in areas outside of sport management, such as general management and marketing, is preferred. Candidates are encouraged to demonstrate a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, full involvement with the students, and the intellectual life of the College. Screening begins immediately and continues until the position is filled. Send statement of interest—including interest in and experience working with diverse student populations, current vitae, transcripts (initial submission may be unofficial copies), list of three references, and two letters of recommendation to Dr. James B. Larriviere, Division of Business, Spring Hill College, 4000 Dauphin Street, Mobile, AL 36608. Electronic submissions to jlarriviere@shc.edu.

Founded in 1830 and located in Mobile, AL, Spring Hill College is a private, Jesuit, student-centered, liberal arts institution with an enrollment of 1400 students. Rooted in its Jesuit Catholic heritage, Spring Hill College forms students to become responsible leaders in service to others and is committed to the spiritual, social, and intellectual growth of each individual. Spring Hill College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.