

Adjunct Instructor–English (Pool)

The English program at Spring Hill College invites applications from qualified persons interested in adjunct teaching assignments. Applications are accepted continuously for part-time, non-tenure-track positions in fall, spring, and summer terms. Applications will be kept on file and reviewed as vacancies become available. There may not be an actual vacancy at the time you apply.

Our main needs are in freshman composition. From time to time, we may have needs in introduction to literature, creative writing, and/or professional writing.

Required qualifications:

- Master's degree in English, Creative Writing, or Rhetoric and Composition.

Preferred qualifications:

- Experience teaching college English classes
- Graduate coursework in composition pedagogy
- Ability to teach developmental writing, online classes, creative writing, and/or professional writing

Please send a current CV to Stephanie Callan at scallan@shc.edu to apply.
