

Adjunct / Part-time Instructor in Sport Management

Spring Hill College, a Jesuit, Catholic, liberal arts college, invites applications for a part-time instructor position in Sport Management to begin in August 2023. An earned Master's degree with at least 18 hours of graduate classes in sport management required, doctorate degree in sport management or related field is preferred. Additional proficiency in areas outside of sport management, such as general management and marketing, would also strengthen the application.

Candidates are encouraged to demonstrate a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, with documented success teaching at the College level and experience teaching in the online environment.

Screening begins immediately and continues until the position is filled. Send statement of interest—including interest in and experience working with diverse student populations, current vitae, transcripts (initial submission may be unofficial copies), list of three references, and two letters of recommendation to James B. Larriviere, PhD, Division of Business, Spring Hill College, 4000 Dauphin Street, Mobile, AL 36608. Electronic submissions to jlarriviere@shc.edu.

Founded in 1830 and located in Mobile, AL, Spring Hill College is a private, Jesuit, student-centered, liberal arts institution with an enrollment of 1200 students. Rooted in its Jesuit Catholic heritage, Spring Hill College forms students to become responsible leaders in service to others and is committed to the spiritual, social, and intellectual growth of each individual. Spring Hill College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.