

LOOKING AHEAD
STUDY ABROAD,
ITALY CENTER IN BOLOGNA
JUNE 15-25, 2025

For the first time, Spring Hill College Summer Institute of Christian Spirituality 2025 will offer two theology courses abroad in June at the Italy center in Bologna. This is an exciting addition to the regular Summer Institute courses taught on SHC campus every June. It is open to all SHC students and CSD students, alumni, students from other institutions, and anyone who wish to have an unforgettable experience in Bologna, Italy. The focus of the experience will be immigration justice rooted in human to human interaction in and around Sicily.

2024 GUEST LECTURERS

Dr. Nicholas P. Wood is an assistant professor at Spring Hill College, where he teaches courses on early American history. After earning his PhD at the University of Virginia, he held postdoctoral fellowships at Yale University and the Library Company of Philadelphia before coming to Spring Hill. Wood's scholarship focuses on the role of religion in the antislavery movement and has been supported by many archives and organizations, including the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Society of Colonial Wars. Wood's scholarly essays have appeared in venues such as the William and Mary Quarterly and the Journal of the Early Republic; his book manuscript, Let the Oppressed Go Free: The Revolutionary Generation of American Abolitionists, will be published by the University of Pennsylvania Press.

Dr. Kathleen Orange

Professor emerita of political science at Spring Hill, and founder emerita of the Foley Community Service Center at the college. Her research centers on political theology.
