

Spring Hill College, a Jesuit, Catholic liberal arts college, invites applications for a full-time position in the Division of Nursing for Mental Health Nursing and Community as Client with the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor beginning in Fall of 2025. The position requires a minimum of a master's degree, a background in psychiatric nursing, and an active and unencumbered license as a registered nurse in the state of Alabama. A doctoral degree is preferred and would be required for appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor.

The position involves coordinating and attending clinicals, and candidates with prior teaching or student supervision in a clinical setting are preferred. Prior to hiring, the candidate must pass a background investigation.

The mission of the Division of Nursing is to provide quality baccalaureate and master's nursing education in a Jesuit liberal arts environment. Students are prepared to become critical thinkers and conscientious caring health care professionals who are committed to excellence and responsibility in service to others. Spring Hill College nursing graduates are guided by an ethical framework nurturing both the personal and social dimensions of faith while meeting the health care needs of a diverse and ever changing society. Graduates are prepared to accept leadership responsibilities in service to others. Teaching is the primary focus of the institution and the division. The standard teaching load is 12-hours, with an expectation of ongoing scholarly development and service. A commitment to teaching is essential, as is a demonstrated understanding of our mission-driven, liberal arts tradition.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. To apply, send a letter of interest (including interest in and experience working with diverse student populations), transcripts (initial submission may be unofficial copies), and current CV to lwages@shc.edu.
